Hanging in the Shack on the square 9 North Main Street

As the Falafel Shack is a family restaurant open to all age levels, we request no images of nudity of a sexual nature, graphically violent or depicting gore, no use of or depiction of illegal substances.

All works must be not previously exhibited in the Falafel Shack Shows.

All works must be completed to an acceptable exhibition and sales standard.

Framed, paper under glass, edges painted, etc. Pieces will hang for 3 months in a restaurant.

All work must be suitably presented for hanging with wire NO SAWTOOTH HANGERS

Each artist may submit an unlimited number of works but pieces included in the Shack Show will be curated according to space availability.

Pieces for sale will be given priority in acceptance.

All submitted pieces will be presented in the online gallery @ www.councilforthearts.net and include a QR code in the restaurant so customers can purchase directly off the wall while they are eating.

Unsold work must stay for the duration of the show.

Unless otherwise stated in writing, the exhibitor's permission to photograph work for publicity will be presumed. The undersigned agrees that the Council is authorized to display and sell the items above at any time during its possession. Any pieces not available for sale must be clearly specified. No artworks on display may be sold outside of the gallery or privately for the duration of the exhibit. Sale of a work privately will be subject to the standard commission agreement. Upon the sale of a piece of work, the Council will deduct from the retail sales price a commission in an amount equal to 35% of the retail sales price and remit to the artist 65% of that sales price within 30 days of close of show. The undersigned agrees that submission of this entry constitutes agreement to the conditions set forth above and understands that the Council for the Arts does not assume responsibility for loss or damage to works submitted.
