Return of work

(Local artists should call the Council at 717-264-6883 to schedule pickup)

Eligibility & Media

1. Artwork must be created by artists living in the USA; it must be original (no copies) and completed within the past 2 years. All works will be juried for acceptance into the exhibit. All works must be for sale, and not previously exhibited at the Council's Miniature Art exhibitions. All works not sold will be shipped back on or before January 16, 2020.

2. All fine art media are acceptable; no crafts, jewelry, photography, laser prints or computer generated artwork. Sculpture is welcome.

3. Image size must be no greater than 4"x 6", not to exceed 24 square inches; outside of framed pieces must be no greater than 6"x 8", not to exceed 48 square inches. Mats & frames should be delicate and in proportion to the work. Sculpture should not exceed 5" in any dimension, or 125 cubic inches.

4. All 2-dimensional work must be suitably framed, with screw-eyes and wire for hanging. Sculpture should be on a base; base may be larger than 5" but must be in proportion to the work.

Entry Fee

5. The entry fee for 1-4 works is $25; an additional $15 will be charged for return shipping and insurance on works not hand delivered. Please make checks payable to Council for the Arts.

Liability

6. All entries submitted will receive careful handling, but the Council for the Arts cannot assume responsibility for loss or damage to works while on display or in transit.

Awards

7. Judging will be done not by medium but by overall quality. Best of Show ($300), 3 Merit Awards ($100 each), and Honorable Mentions will be awarded by the judge. A program book listing all works and award winners in the show will be printed and sent to all artists who have entered.

Sales

8. A 35% commission will be charged on all sales. The price listed on the entry form is the retail price, which include commission. The entrant's signature on the entry form confirms agreement that the Council may deduct this 35% commission.

Shipping

9. A $15 fee for return shipping and handling, regardless of the number of entries, is due with entry of any works not hand-delivered. Entries will be returned in the same wrapping in which they are received (a sturdy box and NO peanuts, please), with a catalogue of the show. Please state number of entries on the outside of package. Local artists may call to pick up works after January 16th, 2020.

Agreement

10. Submission of entries to this exhibition constitutes agreement to the conditions set forth above. Reproductions of this entry form will be accepted. Unless otherwise stated in writing, the exhibitor's permission to photograph work for publicity will be presumed.

Entry Checklist

- Entry form completed & signed
- Check payable to Council for the Arts
- Works with tags attached
- All securely wrapped in packaging suitable for return shipping - no peanuts, please!

Juror

Lisa Sheirer is a digital printmaker, photographer, designer, typographer, sculptor, and art educator who works with pixels, paper, clay, glass, metal and wood. She is a professor and program manager of computer graphics & photography at Frederick Community College.

A native of Western Maryland, Sheirer has a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in painting and printmaking from West Virginia University and a Master of Fine Arts degree in sculpture from University of Notre Dame.

Sheirer's influences are from many disciplines. The natural world and music are great inspirations, especially the traditional music of Appalachia. Her patterned, collaged imagery is comparable to the layering of rhythms in music and nature. Sheirer's primary fine art influences are Helen Frankenthaler, Hiroshi Sugimoto, and Andy Goldsworthy.

Sheirer's creative career has spanned 40+ years, She has produced large ceramic & glass murals for Baltimore Washington International Airport commissioned by the Maryland Department of Transportation and a glass mural installed in the Western MD Health System lobby in Cumberland, Maryland. She has designed and produced one of a kind books for national associations and individuals. Sheirer has exhibited her work in numerous solo shows from Chicago to Washington DC.

Lisa Sheirer is represented by NOMA Gallery in Frederick, MD.
